

City Hall Haunt!

October 26, 2012

6 pm - 9 pm

Yes, it's Halloween time again and let me tell you my friends;
 The season is coming so soon, so fast
 And this year will turn out better than the last!
 We still have the spooky critters and games;
 and the mad scientist still can't be tamed!
 Some new things you'll see, hear and touch:
 A fireman's truck, Hawaiian vacation, an indoor graveyard and such!

If storms should come, don't run and hide
 Because this year, the party is all inside!
 So try as you might to stay away from the fright,
 You know it can't be done and to City Hall you'll run!
 So, come one, come all
 To the best party in the Fall!
