Answer the following questions in writing on an attached sheet(s).

1. List the specific provisions of the Subdivision Regulations which prevent the proposed construction on or use of the property.
2. List the special conditions or characteristics of the land that prevent compliance with the requirements of the Subdivision Regulations.
3. List the particular hardship, which would result if the specified provisions of the Subdivision Regulations were applied to this property.
4. Indicate the extent to which it would be necessary to vary the requirements or provisions of the Subdivision Regulations in order to permit the proposed construction on or use of the property.
5. Explain how the requested variance conforms to each of the following standards set forth in Article III, Section 3.7.3, of the Subdivision Regulations, for grant of a variance:
  - A. The granting of the variance would not be detrimental to the public safety, health or welfare or be injurious to other property in the vicinity.
  - B. Because of the particular physical surroundings, shape, topography or other unusual conditions affecting said property, an undue hardship to the property owner would result, as distinguished from a mere grant of privilege, if the strict application of the regulations were enforced;
  - C. The hardship is not a result of the applicant's own actions.
  - D. The granting of the variance will not conflict with the general purpose and intent of the Battlefield Comprehensive Plan, the Battlefield Subdivision Regulations, the Battlefield Zoning Regulations or any other applicable ordinance of the City.
