

By the Mayor and Board of Aldermen Battlefield, Missouri

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Trey Brand, a Battlefield resident, is the youngest bowler in the history of Springfield, Missouri's chapter of the United States Bowling Congress to bowl a perfect game of 300, twice; and

WHEREAS, Trey lives with autism with grace, diligence and hard work; and

WHEREAS, we recognize Trey Brand as a role model for others with autism through his effort and commitment in perfecting his craft of bowling; and

WHEREAS, Trey will be representing himself, his family, his coaches, his community and those with special needs at the upcoming Junior Gold Bowling Championship to be held in Chicago, IL July 11-17, 2015;

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Battlefield, Missouri, declare June 4th, 2015 as Trey Brand day and find he is worthy of this highest honor; and we support him in his continued commitment to excellence.

Dated this day, June 2nd of 2015.

Mayor Debra A. Nicky

Attest: Beth Anne West

